Dear LACUNY members,

During my tenure as LACUNY President I would like to see better and different types of communication and collaboration among the CUNY libraries faculty and staff. I would also like to see wider involvement in LACUNY activities among all the CUNY libraries. LACUNY supports several roundtables and committees, interesting and informative ways in furthering our professional development. As academic librarians, we must continue to learn and acquire new skills. It’s a cliché to say that academic librarianship is changing rapidly. Nothing is standing still and continuing professional development is important in order to continue to contribute and meet the needs of the CUNY students and faculty. CUNY librarians are a multifarious and engaged group, which makes being a member of this association so rewarding!

Two LACUNY publications, Urban Library Journal and News from CUNY Libraries will be undergoing some changes during the 2006-2007 academic year. The Open Access theme issue, a product of the May 2005 LACUNY Institute will also be the journal’s first open access issue. News from CUNY Libraries, which was revived in 2004 after a hiatus, is being revamped with the addition of a new logo and new feature articles. In addition, LACUNY is launching the “LACUNY Blog,” which I hope generates much discussion, controversy, and interest. The theme of the May 2006 Institute: “Information Commons: Are We All Things to All People?” was a great way to learn about the different ways that academic libraries are adapting to the needs of students. The new designs of academic libraries take into account the needs, learning styles, and technological advances of the current college learning environment. No longer is the library just a quiet place to study, and a repository for books and journals. It has become many things to us and our users: a place to collaborate with other students, prepare class presentations, and learn new software. The theme of next year’s LACUNY Institute, “Technology with a Face: High Tech meets High Touch,” will address ways that technology is becoming smarter and more personalized in order to meet the needs of our diverse users.

Sincerely,

Lisa Finder
LACUNY President 2006-2007
EDITOR’S INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the 39th edition of the LACUNY Directory. As with last year’s edition, this is web-based, up-to-dated monthly. This year’s edition will also include the METRO CODES for all the colleges. As in the past, updates, corrections, and deletions will be done at the end of the fall and spring of each semester of each calendar year. New editions of the Directory will be shipped directly to the Delegates for distribution to paid LACUNY members at each campus Library.

The editor wishes to thank the LACUNY delegates for their assistance with data collection. This Directory could not have been done without their cooperation and continuing effort. Special thanks once again to Joanne Canales, my co-editor, as well as Monica Berger, (City Tech) and Steven Ovadia (LaG) for their continued dedication and efforts in keeping the LACUNY Directory and LACUNY web page current.

LIBRARY HOURS: Unless noted, the hours listed are for the academic year. There is no attempt to be comprehensive and allow for various holidays, summer sessions, and inter-sessions. As with the 38th edition, personal addresses have been omitted.

The editor apologizes for any errors, and omissions. Comments, suggestions, and updates should be reported to the LACUNY delegates as soon as they occur so that the online version is current.

Article I. Election of Officers and Delegates and Appointment of Institute Committee Chairperson and Archivist.

Section 1. Officers

Para A. At least ten weeks before the annual May meeting of the association, the president shall appoint a nominating committee of four members, no two of whom shall be selected from the same college, to nominate candidates for the offices in the association.

Para. B. The nominating committee, within three weeks of its appointment, shall nominate for the positions of president-elect who shall serve as vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and editor(s) of Urban Library Journal. The committee is charged to make every effort to obtain at least two candidates for each of these positions.

Para. C. The delegates, upon being notified of the proposed candidates by the secretary, shall be responsible for informing the members at least six weeks before the annual meeting.

Para. D. Up to five weeks before the annual May meeting, any member of the association may file with the secretary a petition signed by not fewer than five members proposing additional nominations. The names of these nominees shall be added to the ballot.

Para. E. The secretary shall be responsible for informing the membership of the final list of candidates, in the form of a ballot approximately four weeks before the scheduled May meeting.

Para. F.

(1) Ballot mechanism:

The form of the ballot shall be sealed and anonymous. In order to achieve this purpose, the secretary shall prepare packets consisting of:

(a) plain inner envelopes for anonymous ballot
(b) outer signature envelopes
(c) ballots
(d) instruction sheets

The packets shall be distributed to delegates for delivery to eligible members. Prior to the stated deadline, signature envelopes containing the sealed plain inner envelopes with ballot will be collected by delegates and forwarded to the secretary. After checking off the signature against a master list of eligible members of the association, the signature envelopes shall be opened and discarded.

(2) The secretary, in the presence of her or his staff delegates, shall count the ballots and shall inform the membership, either in writing or at the meeting following the election, of the total number of votes received by each candidate on the ballot.

(3) Ballots shall be subsequently sent to the archivist for retention for two years.
Para. G. The officers shall serve one year, except for the president-elect, as specified in Article IV, Section I, Paragraph D, Sentence 2, of the constitution. The secretary may not be elected for more than two consecutive times. The institute chairperson may not be appointed for more than two successive terms. The treasurer and editor(s) shall serve for two years and may not be elected for more than two consecutive terms. Their terms of office shall begin on July first.

Para. H. The president shall appoint a secretary and a treasurer, and an editor(s) of the Urban Library Journal, should a vacancy occur in any of these offices. Should a vacancy occur in the office of president-elect, another election for the vacant office shall be held following the relevant procedures of Paragraph A through G of this article and section of these bylaws.

Section 2. Delegates

Para. A. Elected delegate positions are open to the membership that meet the criteria as stated in Article III, Section 1 of the constitution. There shall be one delegate and one alternate from each college and the CUNY Office of Library Services having a membership in the association of less than 15. There shall be two delegates, a first, and a second alternate from each college having a membership of 15 or more. There shall be one additional delegate and alternate elected from the library teaching faculty from each institution that has such a teaching faculty separate from the library department proper.

The number of delegates from each college shall be determined by the treasurer’s membership report to the executive council at the April meeting.

Para. B. Delegates and alternates shall be elected before June first, and their names shall be submitted to the secretary of the association by the outgoing delegates.

Para. C. The delegates to the executive council shall serve for two years and may not be re-elected more than one successive term, except in cases where the membership is too small to make this practical. Their term of office shall begin July first. For colleges with two delegates, terms shall overlap so that one delegate is elected each year for a two-year term.

Para. D. In case of a vacancy in the office of delegate, the first alternate shall assume the office of delegate for the remainder of that term.

Para. E. If a delegate or delegates cannot attend a given meeting of the executive council, the college represented by such delegates may be represented by an alternate or alternates. Such alternates shall have full voting rights at executive council meetings.

Section 3. Institute Chairperson

The president shall appoint an institute chairperson who shall be in charge of the institute.

Section 4. Archivist

The president shall appoint as archivist a member familiar with archival principles from the staff of the library housing the LACUNY archives. The archivist shall collect, put in order, and maintain the LACUNY records, performing all customary duties of archivists, including the submission of any budget requests.
